

Security for the Complete Life-Cycle

- Design Best Practices
- Web Application Assessment
- Compliance Assessment and GAP Analysis
- Technical Control and Architecture Review
- Penetration Testing
- Risk Assessment
- Incident Handling and Response
- Risk Management Program Development
- Policy and Procedure Development
- Security Awareness Training

ASI provides security services to keep your organization ahead of the threat and to comply with Federal Information Assurance requirements.

Professional Security Services for the Global Information Grid

ASI's Security Services help you:

- Mitigate security threats to business operations
- Proactively address security issues before they are exploited
- Comply with regulatory guidelines
- Lower operating costs through the consistent deployment of security policy and procedures
- Provide secure extension of business applications
- Improve productivity by optimizing security efforts for efficient management and deployments and software updates
- Limit impact of security incidents with advanced preparation and incident response
- Shorten implementation cycles for new security solution deployments and software updates